Information we gather

Cookies

Visitors

You can visit our site without having to share your identity. Several cookies are used to support the session features of our web hosting platform. Your personal data is not stored or related to these cookie values. We may track your IP address to determine the length of your visit, the pages that you viewed or other broad information that is not personally connected to you.

Registrants

We offer a variety of features as benefits to those who register on our website, creating a user account. You can take advantage of advanced features such as ecommerce, order history, purchase tracking and address book by registering to create a username and password. These features are made possible by a technology called a "cookie" which resides on your computer. We do not use cookies for any other purpose than to offer you useful features.

When you place an order

A small file called a "cookie" must be placed on your computer so that you can complete an online order. We do not use cookies for any other purpose than to support our online ordering system.

Information you provide to us

When you enroll for our e-mail newsletters

When you ask us to send you e-mail newsletters which contain details about new products, special offers, sales and tasting events, you will be asked to provide your e-mail address. You may adjust the content you receive or cancel your subscription at any time.

When you sign up for an event

When you sign up for an event or tasting, you will be required to provide your name, address, phone number and e-mail address, plus the names of any guests attending with you.

When you register

When you register with us to create a user account, you will be asked to provide your e-mail address and name. If you choose store additional addresses in our address book, you will be asked to provide their name, address, phone number and e-mail address as well.

When you order

To fulfill an order delivered to you or another person, we require certain information to process the order and to contact you regarding your order if needed. For you and each person that you ask us to deliver to, we require a full name, address, phone number and e-mail address. If you are purchasing an alcoholic beverage from us on our website, you will be asked to provide your date of birth. An adult signature and government-issued photo identification is required at the time of delivery for all alcoholic products.

To pay for the order, you will be asked to use your secure PayPal account. Currently, this is the online method of payment available. At this time we do not allow users the option to store or view credit card information, even if they have made a purchase on our site before.
